Foreword

Mother - the term stands for unconditional love universally, easily the greatest role in the world, but my mother travelled the extra mile. She was a dreamer, not for herself but for her sons! Today, the blissful musical journey that I am on, is the manifestation of my Amma's dream. She dreamt ardently and I woke up to the reality of a career in music. I am making a humble effort to celebrate my Amma, celebrate her dream, celebrate music - for that's the least I could do. I am overwhelmed to share with you that my desire, will, determination and prayers have finally fructified. 'Saukumaryam', a three-day music festival in memory of my beloved mother will be held on 11,12 & 13 of November 2022.

Save your dates, as you will be in for a musical delight. 'Saukumaryam' will feature some of India's finest Carnatic musicians on all three days.

This is a dream come true and let's live it together.

Yours musically,

M Jayachandran

R.Kumaresh & Jayanti Kumaresh

Kumaresh is a noted Indian violinist whose musical career spanning over 50 years and has performed thousands of concerts in more than 25 countries. The brothers (Ganesh & Kumaresh) have gone deeper into the realm of the music and brought out a refreshingly original content and style for the instrument. They were awarded the Sangeet Natak Akademi Award for Carnatic Instrumental Music.

Dr. Jayanthi Kumaresh, a sixth-generation Veena virtuoso, started playing the Saraswathi Veena at the age 3 and is a ten time recipient of the 'Award for Veena' bestowed by The Music Academy, Chennai, India. Jayanthi has performed at many international festivals, and won many awards including 'Kalaimamani' by the Government of Tamil Nadu.

Ranjani & Gayatri (RaGa Sisters)

Ranjani and Gayatri are sisters who perform as a Carnatic vocal and violin duo. Their musical talents were discovered at a very early age. Gayatri could identify over a hundred ragas when she was barely two and a half years and Ranjani could delineate complex rhythm patterns at age five. They have also appeared as soloists, accompanists, composers, and educators of Indian Classical Music. Their work includes studio recordings, television, radio, live concerts and lecture demonstrations.
